

Happy New Year!

Greetings!

As the calendar changes to 2016, we are preparing for what will be a very busy and exciting election year. The 2016 election will determine whether our country stays on a positive trajectory, as we work to elect a Democratic President to build on the progress made under President Obama.

Additionally, we can take back the Senate this year as Democrats have an excellent chance of picking up the six seats required to gain back the majority. We will let you know about key races and how you can get involved.

There will also be important state and local elections in 2016. In a few months, we will begin announcing our endorsements in key races for Congress, Assembly, Senate, City Councils, School Boards, and other special districts.

We are excited that the California Democratic Party Convention is coming to San Jose from February 26-28. See below for information on how you can be a part of it. Please also look below for upcoming events and ways to support the local Democratic Party.

Here's to a Democratic 2016.

SCCDP WATCH PARTIES

This is President Obama's last year in office and we expect he will make great progress with the time he has left. Next Tuesday, January 12, he will give his final State of the Union Address before Congress. Join us at our headquarters for a watch party. Doors open at 5:30 for this pot-luck event. Bring your favorite dish to share with fellow Democrats.

The following Sunday, January 17, the Democratic candidates for President will participate in their final debate before the voting begins in February. We will host a pizza party for at our headquarters, starting at 5:30 pm. We look forward to seeing you then.

The California Democratic Party 2016 Convention will be held at the San Jose Convention Center February 26-28.

- Learn all about the Convention here.
- Volunteers are needed to make sure everything runs smoothly for the over 2000 delegates who will be in San Jose that weekend. At this time, enough volunteers have offered to help, but you can still get on the waiting list in case other opportunities become available.

We will keep you posted of other ways to get involved as the Convention draws closer.

HUMOR BREAK

The Republican candidates for President seem to get crazier each week.

Thanks again for making a difference!
